Chair Message

With the support of our generous donors, the Northern Health Foundation has made significant progress towards achieving our strategic goals this year.

Whilst we are experiencing population growth in Melbourne's north, the need to raise more funds to help Northern Health meet the escalating demand for health services, is inevitable.

Entering into 2016-17 financial year the Foundation remains in a strong financial position. In 2015-16 the Northern Health Foundation distributed more than $600,000 to purchase life-saving medical equipment, fund research, fellowships and assist patients and their families.

In order to grow our supporter base and raise awareness of Northern Health's work, the Foundation has developed and launched several new initiatives this year including The Northern Health Foundation Grateful Patient Program which was implemented in January. In this letter we ask the community for donations to help us do everything possible to achieve our goal of providing exceptional care of the highest standard to every patient. To date we have raised over $25,000 towards this goal.

We have had incredible success over the last twelve months. We have demonstrated our values, showing passion, dedication, progression and collaboration while building supportive relationships with corporate partners, extending our professional networks and connecting with many Trusts and Foundations to invest in the health of people of the north.

Though there is still much work to be done, we are well on our way to achieving our goals, and for that I would like to extend my sincere thanks on behalf of the Board to every single one of our supporters, our tireless volunteers and Northern Health staff. Every donation you give makes a difference and we hope you will continue to support our important work in the year ahead.

John Molnar
Foundation Board Chair

Director Message

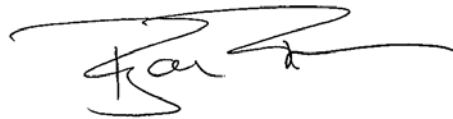

The success of the Northern Health Foundation is intrinsically linked to the support of its donors, and I'm very pleased to report that both our donor base, and the funds we are raising, continue to grow as we spread the word of the enormous demand for health services here in Melbourne's northern community.

As we look towards 2017, we will continue to expand our fundraising efforts through focussed activities such as hosting a donor thank you event in December designed to grow our corporate sector partnerships and relationships with our major donors; Annual Dinner where we will launch the Accommodation Relief Appeal which will generate valuable funds for Northern Health.

But the work does not stop here... our mission to save more lives will still continue.

Our team of dedicated staff and passionate volunteers are committed to the health service of the northern community. Every one of our supporters can also feel proud as each contribution directly assists our fundraising targets.

None of the achievements we've made this year, or the work that we plan to undertake in the months ahead, would be possible without the generosity of our donors to whom we are extremely grateful. Thank you for your support.

Volunteers giving their time

Northern Health has almost 300 passionate, dedicated, collaborative and progressive volunteers working in partnership across The Northern Hospital, Broadmeadows Health Service, Craigieburn Health Service and Bundoora Extended Care Centre.

Our volunteers at Northern Health contributed over 4,000 hours of service, providing assistance to staff, patients, and their families.

Volunteers have a profound impact on the quality of care that we provide to our community, and this week is a great opportunity for us to recognise and thank all of you for the tremendous work that you do. There are many different roles for volunteers at Northern Health; community visitors scheme, library & tea trolley, simulation centre, fundraising, spiritual care, hospital guides, drivers and administration assistance to name a few.

In 2016-17 financial year Northern Health will launch a new program which will see volunteers helping mums, baby's and staff in the Special Care Nursery. They will welcome and assist new families and their visitors, orientate them to the ward and facilities, aid in settling babies and plenty of behind the scenes work too.

The Directors of Northern Health Research, Training and Equipment Foundation Limited are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, and the financial reporting requirements of the Corporations Act 2001, and for such internal control as the Directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

As required by the Corporations Act 2001 and Audit Act 1994, my responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on the audit, which has been conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those standards require compliance with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and that the audit be planned and performed to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The audit procedures selected depend on judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, consideration is given to the internal control relevant to the company's preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

1 Summary of Accounting Policies

Financial Reporting Framework

The financial report is a general-purpose financial report that has been prepared in accordance with the applicable Australian Accounting Standards (AAS), which includes the Australian Accounting Standards issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB), Interpretations and other mandatory professional requirements on an accrual basis.

The following is a summary of the material accounting policies adopted the economic entity in the preparation of the financial report. The accounting policies have been consistently applied, unless otherwise stated.

Basis of Preparation

The financial report is prepared in accordance with the historical cost convention, except for the revaluation of certain non-current assets and financial instruments, as noted. Cost is based on the fair values of the consideration given in exchange for assets.

Estimates and assumptions about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The results of which form the basis of making judgements. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Accounting policies set out below have been applied in preparing the financial statements for the period ending 30 June 2016, and the comparative information presented in these financial statements for the year ending 30 June 2015.

Significant Accounting Policies

Accounting policies are selected and applied in a manner that ensures that the resulting financial information satisfies the concepts of relevance and reliability, thereby ensuring that the substance of the underlying transactions or other events is reported.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The audit procedures selected depend on judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, consideration is given to the internal control relevant to the company's preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Independence

The Auditor-General's independence is established by the Constitution Act 1975. The Auditor-General is not subject to direction by any person about the way in which his powers and responsibilities are to be exercised. In conducting the audit, I and my staff and delegates complied with all applicable independence requirements of the Australian Auditing Standards and relevant ethical pronouncements.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial report presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Northern Health Research, Training and Equipment Trust as at 30 June 2016 and of its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with applicable Australian Accounting Standards.
